

« The European Finance Cup » rules

Organized by

From February 15, 2021 to April 2021

In partnership with:

Bloomberg

capital.com

Table of contents :

- 1. Organizer
- 2. Participation of candidates in “The European Finance Cup”
- 3. Principles, modalities and running of “The European finance up”
- 4. Winners’ prizes of « The European Finance Cup »
- 5. Awards ceremony
- 6. Use of personal data
- 7. Claim
- 8. Acceptance of the rules
- 9. Responsibility of the organising association
- 10. Property rights

Article 1: Organizer

The student association of law 1901 Transaction EDHEC, headquartered at 24 avenue Gustave Delory 59100 Roubaix, represented by Clara Parmentier as president of the so-called association organizes online and in person for European students a free competition without obligation to purchase called: “The European Finance Cup”

The competition will be divided into two phases:

- Phase 1 of qualifying (February 15, 2021 to March 15, 2021)
- Phase 2, the finale (early April 2021).

Transaction EDHEC launches from January 4 to February 12 the registration campaign for this competition, any registration will be to do on the following website: <http://www.europeanfinancecup.eu>

Article 2: Participation of candidates in “The European Finance Cup “

The competition is subject to the regulations of French law applicable to competitions. (articles 1965-1967 from the French Civil Code).

This competition is open to all students from European universities and European schools.

Volunteers from the organising association are excluded.

Any request to participate in fraud of these provisions results in the rejection or retroactive cancellation of participation.

Article 3: Principles, modalities and running of the competition

3.1 First part: registration

Registrations are made by team of two or three students from the same university or school and are open from 04/01/2021 at 6.00pm to 12/02/2020 at 11.59pm which corresponds to the end time of receipt of registrations.

Teams with students from different schools or universities will be discarded.

To enter the competition, candidates must complete a registration application available online at <http://www.europeanfinancecup.eu>. These files will be centralized by Transaction EDHEC.

The applications must be sent Transaction EDHEC through the website by February 12, 2021 (the date of sending the registration with acknowledgement by Transaction EDHEC).

Incomplete or late application will be discarded.

3.2 Part two: qualifying phase

3.2.1 Online trading Contest on the platform ABC Bourse

3.2.1.1 Trading contest

The trading contest event takes place on the platform capital.com, private partner of Transaction EDHEC.

Each participant will have to create an account on the platform capital.com before February 15, 2021 using the same email address as when registering for « The European Finance Cup » and the link sent by Transaction EDHEC on February 1st 2021. The creation of an account on capital.com is completely free and without obligation to purchase.

In order to participate in this event, the hardware and software is as follows: Internet browser supporting HTML5. The player's browser must also accept cookies.

The participants will have to modify by themselves their starting capital on the capital.com platform to 100000€ (maximum allowed on the platform). Transaction EDHEC cannot be held responsible if this amount at the start of the "trading contest" is less than 100,000€. An explanatory video will be sent to participants in order to explain the steps to be taken in order to increase their starting capital.

The teams will have access to the capital.com platform from 1st February 2021 to 14th February 2021 inclusive in order to familiarise themselves with. Their actions during this familiarisation period will have no consequences on their results during the official event.

During the trading contest test, candidates will have from February 15, 2021 to March 15, 2021 to accumulate a maximum of profits on the platform capital.com. They will begin with a virtual background of 100,000 euros.

3.2.1.2 Daily ranking during trading contest

Each day Transaction EDHEC will publish a ranking of the teams according to the profits made during the trading contest event.

It is only for informational purposes.

3.2.2 Qualification results

The results of the qualification phase will be published by Transaction EDHEC one day after the end of the trading contest test and will be communicated by email to all participants. The top 20 teams at the end of the Trading Contest will advance to the finals.

If a team cannot be present the day of the final, the team will be disqualified and will not receive any reward. Another team will be contacted to access the final phase at its place.

3.3 Part three: Final phase

3.3.1 Process

The final will take place in Paris on (undetermined date), in the facilities of Bloomberg LP; EDHEC Transaction's private partner at 7 Rue Scribe, 75009 Paris if sanitary conditions allow it. If not possible the final will be online.

Participants will be given a lecture before the start of the event.

The final event consists in a stock-Pitching prepared by two partners of the event, CACIB and Bloomberg. The 20 teams will present a company and propose an investment strategy in front of a jury of professionals working at CACIB and Bloomberg and students.

More information about the course and instructions for this event are available in the documentation tab of the website: <http://europeanfinancecup.eu/>.

3.3.2 Jury deliberation

The jury is made up of members of partner companies and students. They vote for the presentation they found most convincing.

The final result is determined by these votes.

Article 4: Winning prizes of "The European Finance Cup"

After the results of the final the first 20 teams will be rewarded with physicals and virtuals prizes. More information will be provided during the competition

The winners agree to participate in the awards ceremony which takes place on the same day and at the same place of the final.

The lots and their references may change over the year until the start of the competition and serve only as examples for the participants and therefore cannot be taken for granted currently.

Article 5: Declaration of results and award ceremony

At the end of the jury's deliberation, participants will be obliged to participate in the awards ceremony under duress not to be awarded the award related to their results in the final.

Teams will be called one by one in descending order of the ranking in order to get the reward associated with their ranking (see Article 4).

A networking cocktail is organized after this ceremony where all participants are invited. During this event participants will have the chance to meet financial professionals who support The European Finance Cup.

Participants of the final are also invited to an after-work at a partner bar of Transaction EDHEC after the networking cocktail.

Article 6: Use of personal data

In accordance with French RGPD laws, information collected by Transaction EDHEC are subject of a computer processing designed to take into account your participation in accordance with the rules of the competition and can only be used in the context of the competition and the handing over of prizes. These will be kept for as long as necessary to meet the purposes of this treatment and for a maximum of 3 years. Transaction EDHEC is the sole recipient of the data and responsible for processing it. Participants' personal data may not be used for advertising purposes or promotional by Transaction EDHEC only on the condition that the participant or participants have given their express and explicit agreement to Transaction EDHEC. Your contact information will be kept for 3 years, during which time you can be contacted by Transaction EDHEC in order to be informed of any event organized by the latter and likely to interest you. Names, first names, and photographs of the winner or winners can only be published if the winners have given their explicit consent to Transaction EDHEC.

Transaction EDHEC is committed to complying with the Amended Computer and Freedom Act and data protection regulations, including respect for the rights of access, withdrawal, modification, rectification, removal and opposition of persons being treated. In accordance with Articles 34 and 35 of the amended Computer Science Act of 6 January 1978, Transaction EDHEC is committed to taking all necessary precautions to preserve data security and, in particular, to prevent it from being distorted, damaged or communicated to unauthorized persons.

Each participant has the right to access, correct, erase or modify their data; The participant may also choose to limit its use or set guidelines regarding the fate of his data after his death.

To exercise their rights, the participant can contact Transaction EDHEC by email to contact@transac-edhec.com.

In the event of a claim for personal data, it is possible to contact the CNIL (National Commission for Information Technology and Freedoms): www.cnil.fr; 3 Fontenoy Square - TSA 80715 - 75334 PARIS CEDEX 07.

Article 7: Claim

Any objections or complaints must be made by email to the email address: contact@transac-edhec.com.

This email must contain all contact information of the participant and the exact reason for the contestation or claim.

No other form of challenge or claim will be taken into account.

Article 8: Acceptance of the rules

Participation in the European Finance Cup implies full acceptance of this regulation. The participant who refuses this regulation will not be able to participate in the competition.

Article 9: Responsibility of the organising association

9.1 Cases of major force

This regulation can be obtained free of charge, for the duration of the competition, by anyone who makes a written request to the following email address: contact@transac-edhec.com and online on the website: <http://europeanfinancecup.eu/media.html>

Transaction EDHEC reserves the right at any time to interrupt, delete, extend, shorten or postpone the competition and/or change its terms, in the event of a circumstances beyond his control or any other circumstance that would demand it.

In the event of a change, this regulation would then be updated and updated accordingly as much as needed and the latest version will be available as soon as possible.

The responsibility of the organising association cannot be incurred. As result, no repairs due to changes or cancellations may be asked.

9.2 Fraud

The organising association may cancel all or part of the competition if it appears that fraud or any use of artificial means (and/or their attempt) have occurred in any form in the context of participation in the competition.

It reserves, in this case, the right to not allocate awards to fraudsters (and to those who have attempted fraud) as well as those who have used a form of artificial means (and those who have attempted the use of an artificial means).

The responsibility of the organising association cannot be incurred if, as a result of fraud (and/or attempts), the use of artificial means (and/or their attempts), the conduct of the or the nomination of the winners had to be cancelled, postponed or changed. The Company organizer disclaims any responsibility in the event of an incident resulting from the terms of participation to the competition.

Article 10 Property rights

Any reproduction of document is strictly prohibited. The brands and logos regulations are filed by Transaction EDHEC, CACIB, Bloomberg, capital.com and Alumney

24 avenue Gustave Delory
59100 Roubaix